

QUEEN CITY MUSIC STUDIOS

Spring 2022 Newsletter

Hello Friends,

Summer is gearing up to be a wonderful season here at QCMS. Students and teachers will both have shifts in their schedules allowing for different projects-- perhaps more time for music and enjoying the outdoors. We'd love to take on some new students this summer, so get your musical journey moving with a summer session!

Sing Up Staunton!

Rockin' Choir

Join us every Thursday beginning in April at the Sunspots Pavilion | 7:30-8:30 PM
 Beginners welcome, instruments encouraged!

Hosted by Molly Murphy

Staunton Jams QCMS Student and Teacher Showcase

Saturday 5/28 | 10-12:30pm
It's not too late to sign up if a student would like to share a song or piece they've been working on. Just sign up with their instructor.

Updated Mask Policy

We usually follow the Staunton City School system with regards to holidays, inclement weather closings, and COVID guidelines. However, our mask requirement while in the studio remains for everyone's safety and well-being.

Sing Up Staunton | Rockin' Choir

Sing Up Staunton has started back up on Thursdays from 7:30-8:30 at the Sunspots Pavilion. Beginners are welcome. Donations are encouraged. Sing Up will be performing a couple songs at the Staunton Jams QCMS Showcase at Sunspots Pavilion! For more information visit: www.thejudychops.com/stauntonjams

Molly's Musikgarten continues with the spring session through Staunton Parks and Recreation on Thursdays for Babies and Toddlers. Join us for a Friends and Family Open House for our last Spring Session class 5/26. The summer session begins June 2, and registration is now open!
